IRBNet Login & Registration Tips:
Users that are not registered on IRBNet may click here to self-register.

If you have forgotten your password, click here.
1. Complete this basic user information to register as a new user. Always use your proper name, with standard capitalization as this information is used throughout the system.

2. Passwords must contain 8 (eight) characters.
You must accept the User Terms to become a user
If you are adding yourself as a “researcher”, then click the researcher box, and make sure the other boxes are unchecked.

- You may search for your institution using any terms, such as “Akron”.

- Highlight your institution, and click continue.
Use your Institution approved email to ensure that you receive your activation email and all automatic notifications form the system. Failure to use an appropriate email address may result in your account not being activated.
Click “Register” and continue. The automated account activation email will be sent to your email account.

Take a moment to confirm that the correct email is listed. It can be corrected clicking “Edit” and re-entering the address.
If you are already a registered member of IRBNet, then you can manage your user profile and “Add an affiliation”:

examples:
(1) you are affiliated with two institutions, or
(2) you are both a researcher and a board member
Registration is Complete

An activation email has been sent to your contact email address. You must click on the activation link within the email to activate your account.

Having trouble receiving your activation email from IRBNet? Try the following:

1. Check your spam box to make sure important IRBNet emails aren’t getting accidentally filtered.
2. Make sure to whitelist all emails coming from irbnet.org to assure you receive them properly.
3. Generate a new activation email by logging in to IRBNet and clicking on your User Profile. Make a simple update (such as adding a fax number) and a new activation email will automatically be generated for you.
4. Contact the IRBNet Coordinator at your local Research Office who can provide more helpful information and can assist you in registering your account.

Click “Continue” and you are done!
